START SPREADING THE NEWS...

Ain't no stopping us now!

No we mean it, you literally cannot stop us. We have well and truly leaped into 2022, following our recent success with 'Educating Rita'. Our small cast and crew wowed the audiences with this funny and poignant two-person play!

The play was a great credit to Matthew Bacon as his directing debut, and to the tireless efforts of our backstage and lighting/sound crew. Our hard work paid off, as the adjudicator had nothing but wonderful positive remarks to make about the production. We even had Peter Jones join us to watch, in which he enjoyed immensely, with a fair few chuckles. Well done to Holly Hallam & Daniel Tunbridge for such excellent performances.

Without even blinking, we are already halfway through rehearsals for 'Last Of The Summer Wine'. We have a super keen director at the helm, Chelle Kuta, leading our spot-on cast for this hilarious play.

We couldn't be more excited to see this finished, so don't delay in snapping up those tickets as soon as you can when they become available.

We have big things planned for the rest of the year, including the annual 'ShowHits' production, which includes its usual quota of timeless inspired musical numbers. We are hoping to see as many familiar and new faces as possible this year.

However, lets quickly reminisce to the end of 2021, where not only did we tickle audiences with the highly dramatic and comical 'The Games Afoot', but we also had an unusually timed winter 'ShowHits 2021'! We saw lots of new faces for both of these productions, with the usual fantastic sets and costumes.

What can we say? We never give any less than 100% effort in everything we do! If you would like to get involved or know anyone who does, we have some great opportunities coming up, so keep your eyes peeled...
